

Alberta Barley Commission's AGM

The Alberta Barley Commission's annual general meeting is open to all barley producers in Alberta. The meeting is being held in Banff on December 10, 2010, and features a day of unparalleled insight into barley research, policy and market development in the province. Featured speakers include:

- * Bob Treadway, consulting futurist with TrendTalk
- * Robert McCaug, managing director and director of brewing with the Canadian Malting Barley Technical Centre
- * Sharon McKinnon, policy program coordinator of the Alberta Crop Sector Working Group
- * Doug Walkey, executive director of the Alberta Crop Industry Development Fund, and
- * Charlie Pearson, provincial crops market analyst with Alberta Agriculture and Rural Development

The commission will also present financial and activity reports, as well as resolutions brought forward at regional meetings. To register, go online to www.albertabarley.com and click on the link for the AGM or call toll-free 1-800-265-9111.

The Canadian Farm Business Management Council (CFBMC) has planned an impressive line-up of webinars from November 2010 through February 2011.

